

1 v.
3)
4)
DIAMICS, INC., DIAMICS, LLC and DOES
1 through 160, inclusive,
Cross-Defendants.

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation would be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled under the applicable legal principles to treatment as confidential. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 10, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order creates no entitlement to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and reflects the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, consultants, retained experts, and outside counsel (and their support staff).

2.2 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the medium or manner generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony, transcripts, or tangible things) that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

1 2.3 “Confidential” Information or Items: information (regardless of how
2 generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under standards
3 developed under F.R.Civ.P. 26(c).

4 2.4 “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” Information or Items:
5 extremely sensitive “Confidential Information or Items” whose disclosure to another Party or 6 non-party would create a substantial risk of serious injury that could not be avoided by less 7 restrictive means.

8 2.5 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material
9 from a Producing Party.

10 2.6 Producing Party: a Party or non-party that produces Disclosure or 11 Discovery Material in this action.

12 2.7 Designating Party: a Party or non-party that designates information or 13 items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “Confidential” or “Highly 14 Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only.”

15 2.8 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is 16 designated as “Confidential” or as “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only.”

17 2.9 Outside Counsel: attorneys who are not employees of a Party but who are 18 retained to represent or advise a Party in this action.

19 2.10 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a Party.

20 2.11 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel and House Counsel (as 21 well as their support staffs).

22 2.12 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter
23 pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert

1 witness or as a consultant in this action and who is not a past or a current employee of a Party or 2 of a competitor of a Party's and who, at the time of retention, is not anticipated to become an
3 employee of a Party or a competitor of a Party's. This definition includes a professional jury or 4 trial consultant retained in connection with this litigation.

5 2.13 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support
6 services (e.g., photocopying; videotaping; translating; preparing exhibits or demonstrations; 7 organizing, storing, retrieving data in any form or medium; etc.) and their employees and 8 subcontractors.

10 3. SCOPE

11 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected
12 Material (as defined above), but also any information copied or extracted therefrom, as well as 13 all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations thereof, plus testimony, conversations, or 14 presentations by parties or counsel to or in court or in other settings that might reveal Protected
15 Material.
16

17 4. DURATION

18 Even after the termination of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations
19 imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in 20 writing or a court order otherwise directs.

21 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

22 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection.
23 Each Party or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this Order 24 must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the 25 appropriate standards. A Designating Party must take care to designate for protection only those 26 parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify – so that 27

1 other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not
2 warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

3 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations
4 that are shown to be clearly unjustified, or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 5 unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process, or to impose unnecessary
6 expenses and burdens on other parties), expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

8 If it comes to a Party's or a non-party's attention that information or items that it 9 designated for protection do not qualify for protection at all, or do not qualify for the level of 10 protection initially asserted, that Party or non-party must promptly notify all other parties that it 11 is withdrawing the mistaken designation.
12

13 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in 14 this Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a), below), or as otherwise stipulated or 15 ordered, material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated 16 before the material is disclosed or produced.
17

18 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

19 (a) for information in documentary form (apart from transcripts of 20 depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix the legend
21 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” on each
22 page that contains protected material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page
23 qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) 24 (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins) and must specify, for each portion, the 25 level of protection being asserted (either “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – 26 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”).
27

A Party or non-party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be deemed "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY." After the inspecting Party has identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order, then, before producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the appropriate legend ("CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY") on each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins) and must specify, for each portion, the level of protection being asserted (either "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY").

1 sought and to specify the level of protection being asserted (“CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY
 2 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”). Only those portions of the testimony that
 3 are appropriately designated for protection within the 20 days shall be covered by the provisions
 4 of this Stipulated Protective Order.

5 Transcript pages containing Protected Material must be separately bound by the 6 court reporter, who must affix on each such page the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY 7 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” as instructed by the Party or non-party
 8 offering or sponsoring the witness or presenting the testimony.

9 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary,
 10 and for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the 11 exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend
 12 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” If only 13 portions of the information or item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the extent 14 practicable, shall identify the protected portions, specifying whether they qualify as 15 “Confidential” or as “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only.”

16 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent
 17 failure to designate qualified information or items as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential –
 18 Attorneys’ Eyes Only” does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party’s right to secure 19 protection under this Order for such material. If material is appropriately designated as 20 “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” after the material was initially
 21 produced, the Receiving Party, on timely notification of the designation, must make reasonable
 22 efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

1 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

2 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating
 3 Party's confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable substantial unfairness,
 4 unnecessary economic burdens, or a later significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party
 5 does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a 6 challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

8 6.2 Meet and Confer. A Party that elects to initiate a challenge to a 9 Designating Party's confidentiality designation must do so in good faith and must begin the 10 process by conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not 11 sufficient) with counsel for the Designating Party. In conferring, the challenging Party must 12 explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give 13 the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the 14 circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen 15 designation. A challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if 16 it has engaged in this meet and confer process first.
 17

18 6.3 Judicial Intervention. A Party that elects to press a challenge to a
 19 confidentiality designation after considering the justification offered by the Designating Party 20 may file and serve a motion under Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local 21 Rule 79-5, if applicable) that identifies the challenged material and sets forth in detail the basis
 22 for the challenge. Each such motion must be accompanied by a competent declaration that 23 affirms that the movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed in the 24 preceding paragraph and that sets forth with specificity the justification for the confidentiality
 25 designation that was given by the Designating Party in the meet and confer dialogue.
 26

1 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the 2 Designating Party. Until the court rules on the challenge, all parties shall continue to afford the 3 material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's 4 designation.

5 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

6 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is 7 disclosed or produced by another Party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for 8 prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be 9 disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order.
10 When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of 11 section 11, below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

12 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a 13 location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized 14 under this Order.

15 7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless 16 otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving 17 Party may disclose any information or item designated CONFIDENTIAL only to:

18 (a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of record in this action, as 19 well as employees of said Counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the 20 information for this litigation and who have signed the "Agreement to Be Bound by Protective 21 Order" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;

22 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel)
23 of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who 24 have signed the "Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A);

(c) experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order” (Exhibit A);

(d) the Court and its personnel;

(e) court reporters, their staffs, and professional vendors to whom only necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Agreement to Order” (Exhibit A);

(f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order” (Exhibit A). Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order.

(g) an author or addressee of the document or the original source of the information.

7.3 Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES

ONLY" Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" only to:

(a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of record in this action, as well as employees of said Counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation and who have signed the "Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;

(b) [Deleted.]

(c) Experts (as defined in this Order) (1) to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, (2) who have signed the “Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order” (Exhibit A), and (3) as to whom the procedures set forth in paragraph 7.4, below, have been followed;

(d) the Court and its personnel;

(e) court reporters, their staffs, and professional vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order” (Exhibit A); and

(f) an author or addressee of the document or the original source of the information.

Procedures for Approving Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Information or Items to “Experts”

(a) Unless otherwise ordered by the court or agreed in writing by the Designating Party, a Party that seeks to disclose to an “Expert” (as defined in this Order) any information or item that has been designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” first must make a written request to the Designating Party that (1) identifies the specific HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL information that the Receiving Party seeks permission to disclose to the Expert, (2) sets forth the full name of the Expert and the city and state of his or her primary residence, (3) attaches a copy of the Expert’s current resume, (4) identifies the Expert’s current employer(s), (5) identifies each person or entity from whom the Expert has received compensation for work in his or her areas of expertise or to whom the expert has provided professional services at any time during the preceding five years, and (6) identifies (by name and number of the case, filing date, and location of court) any litigation in connection with which the Expert has provided any professional services during the preceding five years.

(b) A Party that makes a request and provides the information specified in the preceding paragraph may disclose the subject Protected Material to the identified Expert unless, within seven court days of delivering the request, the Party receives a written objection from the Designating Party. Any such objection must set forth in detail the grounds on which it is based.

(c) A Party that receives a timely written objection must meet and confer with the Designating Party (through direct voice to voice dialogue) to try to resolve the matter by agreement. If no agreement is reached, the Party seeking to make the disclosure to the Expert may file a motion as provided in Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, if applicable) seeking permission from the court to do so. Any such motion must describe the circumstances with specificity, set forth in detail the reasons for which the disclosure to the Expert is reasonably necessary, assess the risk of harm that the disclosure would entail and suggest any additional means that might be used to reduce that risk. In addition, any such motion must be accompanied by a competent declaration in which the movant describes the parties' efforts to resolve the matter by agreement (i.e., the extent and the content of the meet and confer discussions) and sets forth the reasons advanced by the Designating Party for its refusal to approve the disclosure.

In any such proceeding the Party opposing disclosure to the Expert shall bear the burden of proving that the risk of harm that the disclosure would entail (under the safeguards proposed) outweighs the Receiving Party's need to disclose the Protected Material to its Expert.

1 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
 2 LITIGATION.

3 If a Receiving Party is served with a subpoena or an order issued in other 4 litigation that would compel disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as 5 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” the 6 Receiving Party must so notify the Designating Party, in writing (by fax, if possible)
 7 immediately and in no event more than three court days after receiving the subpoena or order.
 8 Such notification must include a copy of the subpoena or court order.

9 The Receiving Party also must immediately inform in writing the Party who 10 caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all the material covered
 11 by the subpoena or order is the subject of this Protective Order. In addition, the Receiving Party
 12 must deliver a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order promptly to the Party in the other action
 13 that caused the subpoena or order to issue.

14 The purpose of imposing these duties is to alert the interested parties to the 15 existence of this Protective Order and to afford the Designating Party in this case an opportunity
 16 to try to protect its confidentiality interests in the court from which the subpoena or order issued.
 17 The Designating Party shall bear the burdens and the expenses of seeking protection in that 18 court of its confidential material – and nothing in these provisions should be construed as 19 authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful directive from 20 another court.

21 9. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

22 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed
 23 Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated
 24 Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating
 25 Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all copies of the 26 Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were 27 made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the 28 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

1 10. FILING PROTECTED MATERIAL. Without written permission from the Designating
 2 Party or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not
 3 file in the public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under 4 seal any Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5.

5 11. FINAL DISPOSITION. Unless otherwise ordered or agreed in writing by the Producing 6 Party, within sixty days after the final termination of this action, each Receiving Party must 7 return all Protected Material to the Producing Party. As used in this subdivision, "all Protected 8 Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other form of 9 reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. With permission in writing from the 10 Designating Party, the Receiving Party may destroy some or all of the Protected Material
 11 instead of returning it. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving 12 Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or 13 entity, to the Designating Party) by the sixty day deadline that identifies (by category, where 14 appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and that affirms that the 15 Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or other forms
 16 of reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, 17 Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, transcripts, legal 18 memoranda, correspondence or attorney work product, even if such materials contain Protected
 19 Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject
 20 to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4 (DURATION), above.

25 12. MISCELLANEOUS

26 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any 27 person to seek its modification by the Court in the future.

1 12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this
2 Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or 3 producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective 4 Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of 5 the material covered by this Protective Order.
